

SLOAN "WITCH'S WAND" MUSIC VIDEO CASTING CALL

Want to be in a SLOAN Music Video?

Sloan will be filming a new music video for their track Witch's Wand off of their new album Parallel Play!

You Can Be In It!

In the winter of 1976, a small news crew blew the roof off of a strange and arcane cult that resided in a remote farming community in rural Ontario. This video depicts their most sacred ceremony, a rite of passage ritual, which initiates youth into adulthood and to the upper ranks of the cult, as well as the trailblazing news crew who discovered this mysterious group.

We are looking to cast 10 male volunteers and 10 female volunteers to portray the young members of this group in Sloan's latest music video.
